授業概要	In the English Department, we hold many events and activities to help you build your English skills. You cannot become a competent English speaker just by attending classes, so these activities are one way to improve your listening, speaking, discussion, and presentation skills. In addition, you will learn more about the many cultures behind the English language. These will help you prepare for any future study abroad or travel experiences you might have. On top of the activities we offer, there is also our CHleru e-learning program which will give you extra practice in all the English skill areas. By doing a little extra English practice online each week, you will gain extra proficiency.
学生が達成すべき行動目標	The aim of this course is to help students attain the following goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can improve my listening and speaking skills through outside class activities - I can use my English skills to participate in these activities - I can improve my confidence in using English - I can develop greater understanding of English-speaking cultures - I can develop a wider global perspective
