授業概要	This course will focus on cultural and lifestyle comparisons. The students will be required to work individually or in groups researching and analyzing information about different areas around the world, then presenting their results in front of the class. The students should look for information on the Internet, school library, or other resources. The students should compare their results with the results of other groups, and then discuss how this compares to the situation in Japan. NOTE: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> All classes will be taught in English. All classes will be conducted online. For online classes, students will need to have an Internet-capable device and access to the Internet. You will also need to install the Zoom app (freely available). Students will need to access the course page on Moodle to check their Zoom times and access details.

An ideal student for this class will have an inquiring mind that looks deeper than the superficial data and information found on the Internet. It is important in this class to look at the information gained from research objectively, and then make your own interpretations and conclusions.				Students in this class need to prepare and practice presentations each week that give a clear insight into the concepts being discussed. Students are expected to research material from a wide range of sources to prepare for these presentations.
