授業概要	This course on western culture will meet 12 times on campus. This will be followed by a one week intensive practical term in an all-English camp in Shizuoka Prefecture (9/06~9/11). In the classes at Seinan Jo Gakuin University we will look at various aspects of western culture from a comparative aspect as well as a practical one. During your stay in Shizuoka you will meet, study and live in an all-English environment with people from various English speaking countries. Note: 1. All classes will be taught in English. 2. Parts of this course could be online. 3. This course is limited to 12 students. If more than 12 students apply for the course, a decision will be made by lottery in the first class meeting in April. 4. The practical part of the course may change depending on the situation of the pandemic.
学生が達成すべき行動目標	1. Learn about English speaking country cultures and their differences. 2. Gain practical experience in preparing to travel. 3. Be able to explain about Japan to people from another country. 4. Learn about and interact with people from other countries.
