担当教員	Paul Collett
授業概要	Welcome to a new world of discussion! You have spent many years studying English structures, and last year you had your first taste of oral English. This year, we take everything you have learned and begin using it in authentic situations. This is not a conversation class, but a class where we discuss real topics. You will be expected to prepare for each lesson, then come to class ready to express your opinions, listen to other students, and respond fully. For students who participate energetically, this will be an interesting and stimulating class. NOTE: 1. All classes will be taught in English.

学生が達成すべき行動目標
標準的レベル	Through this class, it is hoped the students will be able to achieve the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can improve my general communication skills - I can state my opinion about the topics under discussion - I can show if I agree or disagree with other's opinions - I can clearly express my point of view and explain why I hold that view - I can prepare and make short presentations about various topics Students should make an effort to discuss the topics and give their opinions on them. They should show they understand and are able to use the language in the textbook to present their ideas. They should also contribute to the group projects, and complete the homework exercises. Attendance of all classes is also expected.
理想的レベル	The ideal student will take an active role in expressing their opinions about the topics under discussion. They will make an effort to use the language covered in the textbook, and to extend the basic conversations beyond the examples given. They will be able to clearly and logically present their ideas. They will also contribute to and complete the various projects and homework activities.
