Be prepared to bring your enthusiasm and interest in learning and communicating about yours and other cultures. Before beginning this course it is recommended to seriously consider whether you are ready and able to participate in the overseas training program in August.

You should be ready and willing to learn about Canada and its culture by researching material on your own. You should also be ready to explain about Japan. Being open to new ideas and ready to challenge new things will help you advance in this course. Don't be afraid of making mistakes, and take the opportunities to learn from others.

Important:

- From August 7 to August 26 we will be studying English and experiencing Canadian culture at Vancouver Island University.
- Costs and program explanation will be given in the first class.
- You must take part in the overseas study to get credit for the course.
