担当教員	Malcolm Ross Swanson

授業概要	In this class, we will continue the work you completed in Media English I last year, but in greater depth. During the semester you will work on a series of projects, either alone or in groups. Each project will focus on a different form of media, such as: ・Digital storytelling ・Magazine and newspaper writing ・Podcast and blog creation ・Using TED Talks ・Website creation ・The role of influencers ・Creating a documentary or TV programme Each project will be graded, with those grades going towards your final grade. Therefore, it is important to complete each assignment. This will be an interesting and creative course for students who apply themselves to each assignment. NOTES: 1. All classes will be taught in English.

授業形態	講義と演習	授業方法	This course will be taught using active learning activities. Students will need to participate fully to make the most of all activities.

標準的レベル	Students taking this course will work towards these "Can do..." goals: 1. I can use media as a resource to study English. 2. I can discuss issues that other students present. 3. I can build skills to continue discussions both within class and online. 4. I can create media with the skills I learn in this class. 5. I can design, create, and present an Internet project. Students must explore the topics provided each week, using the technology they are provided with in original and innovative ways. They must also build their English skills using media in an effective manner.

理想的レベル	An ideal student for this class will use their skills to research media technology, present on it, and if possible, use that technology to create original media. They will also utilise many different media to build their English skills.
