単位	1.	履修	選択	開講年次	1	開講時期	後期
担当教員	James Hicks
授業概要	This course continues to help students develop listening and speaking fluency through engaging content and practical exercises. It takes a systematic, step-by-step approach, and the content and exercises put the tools of the language into students' hands as they learn the patterns used in daily life. The topics are related to our personal lives (food, parties, vacations), functional topics (directions, location, invitations), and common discussion topics (weekend activities, school trips, past experiences).

After at least six years of English study, you already have a strong foundation in English. This vocabulary, grammar, and general English knowledge will help you to participate fully in these classes.

To get the most out of this class, you need to be using English as much as possible, to both the teacher and other students. You should also prepare for class each week by studying and completing the grammar homework assigned by your teacher.
