担当教員	Andrew Zitzmann
授業概要	This course is a continuation of Foundations (Listening & Speaking) I. We will continue to focus on the basic skills needed for effective listening and speaking. Further use of individual and group activities will be made to help improve students' skills. It is expected that students will realize an improvement in their English communicative abilities as well as increased confidence in their use of English to communicate. The skills gained in this course set a strong foundation for participation and comprehension in other English medium courses. All classes will be taught in English.
